PRAYER BY EMMA LOU THAYNE

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. On this very cold winter morning we thank thee for the right to gather here in this warm, regal building; a symbol of liberty. What a blessing it is for this esteemed Senate to meet with this in mind. To be free to express like and unlike views and have the opportunity, yes obligation, to listen as much as to talk to be responsible to each other and to the people of our more and more diverse state [and] to enact laws that can benefit all for this year and for years to come. May they never cease to revere what someone has called "the ferocious engine of our democracy," a democracy created to be a function of the people, by the people and for the people. Bless this Senate in their power that they may act always with this in mind, and with that bigness and vision to rise above lines that would divide them, even as they reflect their constituencies who have sent them here. Help this honorable body never to forget the least of those brothers and sisters, families and friends who need consideration the weak, the poor, the handicapped, the homeless, the afflicted. Give them and us not just tolerance, but acceptance and consideration of difference. In this time of great excitement for the Winter Olympics 2002 in our very own Salt Lake City, help this body in their own contests here in this room to retain the Olympic spirit of sportsmanship under pressure. Help them to try hard, to play fair, and to win or lose with largess, and beyond any legislation of the immediate past, even as we live now in perilous and shifting times. May this year's bills be offered with peace in mind and heart and actions, and with a unity of purpose as in the glorious moment following the shock of September 11 when their national counterparts, members of the United States Congress, spontaneously sang together on the Capitol steps in Washington, "God Bless America." We ask Thee now in a time of war, to bless this senate, this state, our communities, ourselves with the capacity not only for action, but for joy even jubilation as we welcome the world in a giant celebration of peace; the peace that says, "No, this nation under God shall not perish from the earth." For me, in the name of Jesus Christ, and for others by what they believe, Amen.
